Course Administration

Welcome to O'Neill Kinesiology College!

This document contains information that will help your orientation into the course. Please keep it in a safe place so you can refer to it throughout your time in the O'Neill Kinesiology College training.

Office Hours

The O'Neill Kinesiology College office is open:

Monday–Friday: 8.30am–6.00pm
Saturday: 8.30am–2.00pm

All administration, academic and financial matters need to be directed to Student Services during these hours. Trainers and tutors are available during class times to discuss matters relating to the training they are providing only, they are not authorised to deal with any other issues you may have.

Student Services can also be contacted via email: training@oneillcollege.com.

Parking

Students are asked to abide by the following guidelines every time they come to the college. Never park on the grass at the front of the block (this violates council regulations.)

Parking during normal business hours (Monday – Friday 8.30am-5.30pm)

- a) Please park at the Rhein Donau Club in any unmarked bays.
- b) Only park in car bays behind the college building that are marked 'kinesiology'.

Parking outside normal business hours (evenings, weekends and public holidays)

- a) Park in any car bay on the block, except the bays marked for 'kinesiology clinic clients' on Saturdays.

Class Times

Please ensure you know all your class times. Lunch time is one hour in the middle of the day and there will be breaks at mid-morning and mid-afternoon. You are expected to be in attendance before the start time of each class, as classes begin promptly at the scheduled time. Punctuality is a courtesy to both your facilitators and your fellow students. Please show them full respect by arriving on time! If entering late, enter quietly.

You will be given a schedule of dates at the beginning of each term. Please ensure you are clear about your days of attendance and speak to Student Services for clarification if necessary. Please note: while we endeavour to keep to the dates distributed on the first day of classes, the dates are subject to change when necessary during the year.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken by the trainer at the beginning of every class and late students will be marked as such on the attendance register. Students who leave a class early will also be marked as such. Each module has an attendance requirement, usually 80%. In addition, each Kinesiology module has a practice night attendance requirement of 80% for the corresponding term. Failure to meet the attendance requirements for a module will result in an incomplete for that module.

Attendance at inductions is compulsory. Failure to attend will result in having to attend a one-on-one session with one of the college staff and incurring a fee for this session.

If you are unable to attend a class, please notify the office by phone or email before the class. It is your responsibility to find out all information missed, both notes and notices regarding assessment or classes, from a fellow classmate. Missed handouts will be put in the collection folder for you to collect during class or office hours.

Practice Sessions

Students have a choice of enrolling in practice sessions either during the day or in the evening. Please do not arrive before the practice start time. You can arrive any time within the first 30 minutes and you will be guaranteed a partner to practice with. The sessions are:

- Monday 9.00am – 12.00pm
- Thursday 3.00pm – 9.00pm
- Friday 9.00am – 12.00pm and 1.00pm – 4.00pm

If you are unable to attend the practice assigned to your class on a permanent basis, you must fill out a 'Practice Attendance Form' and note all practice times you could attend. Student Services will then return a copy of the form with your re-scheduled practice time noted on it.

Attendance at practice sessions each week is essential for ensuring you become proficient in all kinesiology skills taught and to give the tutors sufficient time to assess you. Your practice attendance requirements are:

- 75% minimum if you live within a 2 hour drive from the college
- 50% minimum if you live more than 2 hour drive from the college

You can apply for an exemption if you need to reduce your practice attendance because of special circumstances. Please note that exemptions are only granted on a term basis because attendance at practice is essential for becoming a highly competent Kinesiologist.

You will be allocated your practice partner based on arrival at the session. Please do not organise to work with a particular classmate at these sessions. It is important that you demonstrate competence with a large variety of different clients, so practising with students from different year groups is highly encouraged.

Students may occasionally swap a practice session as long as you notify Student Services at least 24 hours before the session(s) affected and there is sufficient space in the session you wish to attend. If you wish to permanently change the practice session you are enrolled in, you must put your request in writing to Student Services.

Country students are expected to attend Friday afternoon practice directly prior to each training weekend and Monday morning practice directly after each training weekend. All these practice sessions are compulsory if you are to fulfil your practice requirements.

Classroom Practice

Putting your newly learnt skills into practice during the classes is an important aspect of this course. During these practice sessions students will finish their balances at different times. When you finish a balance please be respectful of your fellow classmates and remain quiet so that others can finish without too much noise.

Class practice is for learning and the time allocated will be limited to ensure everyone has equal time. To ensure you maximise the learning opportunities of this course it is essential that you avoid missing class practice sessions, attend all practice sessions and complete your practice workbook during each Kinesiology module.

Everyone has different energy and muscle monitoring responses and it is important for your professional development that you learn to work with a wide variety of people. To this end you are encouraged to work with everyone in the class, especially those you don't know very well. In your practice you are providing a service and it is better if you can be more versatile and develop compassion for all people.

The college is not a clinic and it is not appropriate to expect to get treatments in class time. Emotional issues may arise during class practice and if additional support is needed it is recommended you seek treatment, preferably with a qualified Kinesiologist.

Labels

Please label all items you bring onto campus, including your books, equipment etc. O'Neill Kinesiology College will take no responsibility for lost items.

Mobile Phones

Please ensure that all mobile phones are turned off during class times, unless for an extreme emergency. Texting or any other use of your mobile phone is disrespectful to your teachers and fellow students, please NEVER do this in class. If you must be in contact with your family during the day, then please take a seat near the door and leave the classroom when you must use your mobile phone.

Housekeeping

Tea, coffee and basic biscuits are provided. If you want something more nourishing or special teas and coffee during breaks, please feel free to bring your own.

It is the students' responsibility to clean all dishes, rubbish, etc, during the day. Please make sure that the training rooms are left in a clean and tidy condition. A class roster must be organised for cleaning up at the end of each class.

Student Submissions

All assessments are to be submitted into the Submission draw. Please do not give assessments directly to trainers/assessors, as in the event that something should happen to it, we will have no record of you having handed the assessment in. It is advisable to keep a copy of all work submitted to the college, in the unlikely event that something might happen to your submission. The Collection draw contains marked work, memo's, replies to requests etc. Please check this daily. This is your own responsibility.

Assessments

Assessment dates are distributed at the beginning of each module/term and it is your responsibility to ensure you are aware of the assessment dates and comply with them.

All assessments for a module should be completed within 1 month of finishing the module. Failure to complete all assessments within 1 month of the semester finishing will lead to an incomplete for the relevant modules.

Submission of Assignments

If you require an extension to complete an 'assignment' (research assignment, essay, case study, or workbook) you must submit a 'Deferral of Assessment' form to Student Services prior to the due date. The granting of extensions is at the discretion of the manager. Sympathetic consideration is given to requests for extension of time. Only a reasonable number of extensions will be granted each academic year, so consider your applications carefully.

Extensions are not granted where requests are received after the due date for submission of an assignment. Late submissions or re-submission where an extension request has not been granted will incur a fee, payable before marking.

When re-submitting an assignment, please include your original 'Assignment Coversheet' and original assignment for the assessor.

Attendance at Assessments

If you are unwell on the day of an assessment then a doctor's certificate must be supplied to authenticate this. If you need to defer an assessment for academic or personal reasons, you must submit a 'Deferral of Assessment Request' form to Student Services at least 2 weeks prior to the assessment date. The granting of deferments is at the discretion of the manager.

There is a fee for sitting an assessment at a date other than those distributed at the beginning of the module, unless the request is accompanied by a doctor's certificate. Failure to attend a scheduled assessment without prior notification or a doctor's certificate may lead to an incomplete for that module.

A schedule for attendance times at simulation assessments and clinic assessments will be distributed at least 3 weeks prior to the assessment dates. If you need to swap your scheduled time, then it is your responsibility to arrange this if permission is granted from your tutor.

Unique Student Identification Number (USI)

All students are required by government regulation to obtain a USI. If you have not provided the college with your USI or provided authority for O'Neill Kinesiology College to create one on your behalf on your enrolment form, please go to www.usi.gov.au to create your USI, then email it to training@oneillcollege.com. The college cannot provide you with any statements or qualifications until you have provided your USI.

Fees Payment

Each term has an 'Administration date' and late fees will be charged for all modules which have not been paid in full by this date. The Administration date is Tuesday in week 3 of each term. Note that non-financial students may be refused attendance at classes.

All financial matters, including payment of fees, must be directed to Student Services during office hours. Special needs and requests will be considered. Applications should be forwarded to the Manager prior to the next term. O'Neill Kinesiology College will treat all such requests with the utmost confidentiality.

Internet Usage

As a student at O'Neill Kinesiology College you have access to the wifi at no cost, to help you study and research. However, the College will impose severe disciplinary penalties on you, which may include suspension, termination of enrolment and/or criminal prosecution, if you use these privileges inappropriately. If you break any law of the Commonwealth of Australia or the State of Western Australia you will be reported to the relevant authorities.

When you are using your own device to access the College's wifi services, the College reserves the right to check what you have downloaded and stored, if it has reasonable grounds for believing that you may have infringed copyright or done some other illegal act.

Copyright

The information in the O'Neill Kinesiology College training and all documents given out are subject to copyright. No document is to be duplicated or copied in any form whatsoever, including no electronic reproduction, without the written permission of the owner. Owner: © copyright Nicolie O'Neill Kinesiology Pty Ltd.

Any breach of the above policy requirements can result in termination of enrolment. After your studies are completed at the College, all breaches of our copyright, including electronic reproduction, will be reported to the relevant industry bodies and could result in criminal prosecution.

Classroom Etiquette

O'Neill Kinesiology College is a place for people to learn Kinesiology and the products and services being offered on campus are for the learning of Energetic Kinesiology. The promotion of any products or services is strictly prohibited on our premises, please do not distribute in a formal or informal manner any materials or contact details while attending classes at the College.

Student Support Services

Student Support

O'Neill Kinesiology College is committed to supporting all students to achieve success in their studies and this support is tailored individually to meet each student's needs. If you are experiencing any challenges with regards to your studies at O'Neill Kinesiology College, please see reception to make an appointment to meet with the Manager to discuss your personal circumstances. This confidential meeting will be held to support you in achieving success at the college.

The Manager is available to assist learners with training issues or to provide advice on assessment. In the event of a situation involving harassment, or a complaint regarding training, please see the Complaints, Grievances and Appeals section.

Registered Training Organisation

O'Neill Kinesiology College is a Registered Training Organisation registered with the Training Accreditation Council of Western Australia. Our National RTO Provider Number is 51242. As a Registered Training Organisation the college has obligations to provide quality training and assessment, to comply with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations, and to provide AQF certification documentation when students complete their studies. The college is also obligated to notify students if there are any changes to the training services that will be provided to them after enrolment.

Adjustments to Enrolment

Students are sent an enrolment letter every year clearly stating the units of study they are enrolled to complete in that year. This letter will have a training schedule attached. If you do not receive this letter or need a replacement, please see Student Services immediately.

Please see reception to make an appointment with the Manager if you:

- are unsure about your enrolment or the training schedule
- need clarification about your study commitments
- need to adjust your training program or enrolment in any way

The college offers weekdays and weekend/evening study options and a combination of these options is also possible. If you want to discuss optimising your training schedule within your life circumstances, please see the Manager to talk through options.

Study Support

If you need assistance with transitioning into post-secondary studies, study skills or other support with your studies, please see the Manager. The college has a study skills tutor and Kinesiology tutors and these services are available to all enrolled students. Please note it is common for adults to encounter some challenges when returning to study, if you have any issues with your studies please see the Manager without delay so these issues can be resolved in an efficient manner.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)

O'Neill Kinesiology College is committed to supporting students who require a variation in their training arrangements due to language, literacy and/or numeracy needs. In essence, we seek to identify possible barriers within learning and assessment processes and practices, which place individuals with specific needs in LLN at a disadvantage. Should a student have issues with learning because of LLN difficulties, or because they may not have English as their first language, the Manager will discuss this with the individual student, make adjustments to their training and/or assessment when needed, and refer them to an appropriate LLN service or ESL (English as a Second Language) service as required.

Students with a Disability

O'Neill Kinesiology College wants to ensure everyone enjoys an inclusive and accessible learning environment. If you have a disability that could impact on your studies, please ensure this is noted on your enrolment form or is brought to the attention of the Manager as soon as possible after enrolment. A meeting will be arranged with the Manager prior to or during your first semester of training to discuss minimising barriers to study caused by disability or a medical condition. The manager will assist with:

- Coordinating services to meet individual needs
- Working to eliminate barriers which may disadvantage you
- Assisting you to achieve your education and career goals
- Encouraging you to be independent and take responsibility for your course of study

Student Selection

O'Neill Kinesiology College provides training in accordance with Equal Opportunity and Access and Equity principles. Students are enrolled and trained without discrimination on the basis of age, gender, mobility, race, culture, religion, ethnicity, colour or any other factor that may otherwise influence selection.

- Efforts will be made to identify students with literacy or language difficulties so that provision can be made to support them adequately during training and arrange appropriate methods of assessment.
- Where physical impairments may interfere with the student's capacity to complete the training offered successfully, the Manager will determine whether the student has the capacity to work within the Kinesiology industry and advise them accordingly.

Assessments

The method of assessment for all units includes a combination of the following:

- Simulation assessment
- Case studies
- Research assignments
- Written reports
- Direct observation of performance
- Oral presentations
- Oral questioning
- Theoretical assessment

All assessment undertaken by O'Neill Kinesiology College will follow the provisions of the Assessment Guidelines of the Health Training Package, and be conducted fairly and openly.

All course participants will be made aware at the commencement of any training or assessment process what the procedures will be, the requirements that they will need to meet to be assessed as competent, and all processes for appeal, subsequent assessments and grievances.

All participants will have the opportunity to apply for Recognition of Prior Learning against the competency outcomes of courses conducted by O'Neill Kinesiology College. Please book a meeting with the Manager if you wish to apply for Recognition of Prior Learning for any aspect of the course.

Work Placement

As with other healthcare qualifications, students are required to demonstrate their skills and knowledge in the workplace to achieve a Kinesiology qualification. The college arranges work placements within the college and these are completed during the 'Student Clinic' modules of our courses. This ensures that a qualified assessor is present throughout their workplace experiences. There is no requirement for students to arrange their own work placements.

Confidentiality and Access to Records

The privacy of clients, students and staff is respected. O'Neill Kinesiology College endeavours to maintain complete confidentiality of information; and disclosure to external agencies is only made with the individual's consent, or when required by law. All records are kept in a secure environment.

- Client, student and staff information will be treated in confidence and a Release of Information Form must be signed by the individual concerned stating which agencies will have access to the information about them.
- The only information held about a client will be information necessary for the Student Clinic.
- The only information held about a student will be information necessary for training and assessment.

Students can obtain access to information pertaining to their training and assessment by contacting the Manager.

Code of Conduct

It is the responsibility of O'Neill Kinesiology College to provide a safe training / working environment and it is the responsibility of staff, students and clients to act with common sense and duty of care.

Disciplinary action will be implemented in the following situations:

- participants in training whose use of alcohol or drugs affects their performance will be reported to the Manager;
- consumption of drugs on the premises is banned;
- consumption of alcohol is also banned except when authorised by the Manager;
- any form of sexual or racial harassment will be dealt with severely.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment of any kind, under any circumstances, is unacceptable and O'Neill Kinesiology College will support staff or students who are subjected to this kind of behaviour. The definition of sexual harassment includes touching inappropriately, sexual innuendo, being asked to perform sexual acts and insults about your sex.

If this type of behaviour occurs:

- the incident should be reported to the Manager;
- the Manager should warn the harasser that the behaviour is unacceptable;
- if discussion does not resolve the issue, other action must be taken to safeguard the victim of harassment.

Policies and Procedures

Tuition Fees and Refunds Policy

O'Neill Kinesiology College has a comprehensive tuition fees and refund policy to ensure that fair and reasonable fee and refund procedures are implemented.

Procedures

Fees

There are two payment alternatives for fees:

1 Payment each Term

Term payments are due in full by the first day of each term.

2 Monthly Payments

Monthly direct debits of equal payments commencing on registration day. This payment facility is arranged with a credit institution and will attract a small charge per month.

Deferral and Withdrawal Procedure

1. If a student wishes to defer or withdraw from their studies after enrolling in a course they must state this in writing to the college.
2. Once the deferral/withdrawal notice is received a meeting with the Manager will be organised to finalise all paperwork.
3. If the student is entitled to a refund this will be completed and all monies returned to the student within 28 working days.
4. If the student has any outstanding fees a payment plan must be agreed to during the meeting with the Manager.

Refund Policy

1. If a student withdraws from a unit of study prior to the commencement date for that unit of study:
 - a) 100% of tuition fees paid for that unit will be refunded to the student.
2. If a student withdraws from a unit of study after the commencement date:
 - a) no refund is applicable; and
 - b) the student will be required to pay the full course fees applicable for that unit of study.

Refunds due to Cancellation

Should O'Neill Kinesiology College cancel a unit of study or course of study, for any reason, participants enrolled at the time the cancellation is announced, will be entitled to a full refund, and this will incur no administrative charges or penalties.

Grievances Procedures – Non-Academic

Grievance Policy

Complainants may raise a grievance if they feel they have been unfairly treated by management, staff or students enrolled in O'Neill Kinesiology College courses and they wish some action to be taken to remedy the situation. Complainants have a right to complain without fear of retribution and have their complaint dealt with promptly.

This policy applies to all persons enrolled with, or seeking or exploring enrolment with O'Neill Kinesiology College for the delivery of education, training and assessment services. The procedure describes the process by which complainants may have problems of a non-academic nature addressed effectively, efficiently, timely, fairly and confidentially. Non-academic grievances include issues such as harassment, vilification, discrimination, financial matters, fines and payments, application procedures, exclusion from events and facilities, and the use or misuse of personal information.

This grievance process is provided to all persons at no cost. Complainants are entitled to access this grievance procedure regardless of their place of residence or the mode in which they study.

A complainant may, at any stage, be accompanied and assisted by a third party (such as a family member, friend, counsellor or other professional support person). All of the stages in the grievance procedure will not victimise or discriminate any of the parties involved.

Implementation Procedures:

- The Manager is responsible for implementation of this policy and procedure.
- Students will be given the Student Handbook upon enrolment which sets out the grievances and appeals processes available to them and the flow chart of staff in order to approach when making a complaint.
- All students will undergo an induction at the beginning of their training and the grievances procedures will be explained to them.
- All new staff will receive a copy of the Student Handbook and Policy and Procedure Manual and be fully trained in the implementation of the grievance policies and procedures.
- Students will be advised that meetings with the Manager regarding college matters must be arranged through Reception.
- Documentation relating to the resolution of grievances will be kept in the RTO filing system for a minimum of 5 years. All documentation will be kept strictly confidential.

Grievance Process:

1. Students with a complaint or grievance are encouraged to discuss it with their trainer/assessor or the Manager prior to accessing the formal grievance procedure outlined below.

2. If the complainant feels the situation has not been resolved to their satisfaction then they and/or their advocate should begin the formal grievance procedure outlined below.

Stage 1

3. Formal grievances should be submitted in writing to the Manager using the Grievance Form. Students are also requested to offer what they perceive as solutions to problems.
4. The college will acknowledge receipt of the grievance form in writing. If the college believes that more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the grievance it will inform the student in writing with reasons as to why more than 60 calendar days are required.
5. A meeting will then be scheduled with the Manager and all discussions will be recorded in writing.
6. Following this meeting the Manager will assess the grievance, determine the outcome and advise the complainant in writing of their decision within 7 days. The letter will advise the complainant of their right to access stage 2 of this procedure if they are not satisfied with the outcome.

Stage 2

7. If the Complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of stage 1 they may lodge an appeal in writing with Tania McGowan, Managing Director, O'Neill Kinesiology College, PO Box 1665, Melville South WA 6156.
8. The complainant's appeal will be determined by Tania McGowan (the Reviewer).
9. The Reviewer will conduct all necessary consultations with the complainant and other relevant persons and make a determination of the appeal. The complainant will be advised in writing of the outcome of their appeal, including the reasons for the decision, within 14 days.
10. The Complainant will be advised of their right to progress to Stage Three of the grievance procedure if they consider the matter unresolved.

Stage 3

11. If the Complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of stage 2 they may request that the matter be referred to an external dispute resolution process by a person appointed for this purpose by O'Neill Kinesiology College.
12. The organisation appointed for the external dispute resolution process is Australian Mediation Association.
13. O'Neill Kinesiology College will give due consideration to any recommendations made by the external reviewer.

Grievances Procedures – Academic

Grievance Policy

Students may raise a grievance if they feel they have been unfairly treated by management, lecturers or co-students and they wish some action to be taken to remedy the situation. Students have a right to complain without fear of retribution and have their complaint dealt with promptly.

This policy applies to all students enrolled with, or persons seeking enrolment with O'Neill Kinesiology College for the delivery of education, training and assessment services. The procedure describes the process by which students and prospective students may have problems of an academic nature addressed effectively, efficiently, timely, fairly and confidentially. Academic grievances include matters which relate to student progress, assessment, course content or awards in a course of study.

This grievance process is provided to all persons at no cost. All students and prospective students are entitled to access this grievance procedure regardless of their place of residence or the mode in which they study.

A complainant may, at any stage, be accompanied and assisted by a third party (such as a family member, friend, counsellor or other professional support person). All of the stages in the grievance procedure will not victimise or discriminate any of the parties involved.

13. O'Neill Kinesiology College will give due consideration to any recommendations made by the external reviewer.

Appeals

Appeals against assessment decisions can be made in any training/assessment undertaken by O'Neill Kinesiology College. The appeals process is as follows.

VET Fairness Policy

Fair Treatment

O'Neill Kinesiology College will treat fairly all of its students and all of the persons seeking to enrol with the RTO.

In order to ensure that fair treatment is provided as required, the following procedures will be implemented:

- Places in the O'Neill Kinesiology College courses of study will be allocated to potential students in order in which enrolment applications are received, provided they meet enrolment requirements which are the equivalent of Year 10 literacy and numeracy.
- All students will be provided with a Student Handbook at the time of enrolling outlining all the O'Neill Kinesiology College student policies and procedures.
- Effective student support services will be provided to support a student's application, transition and undertaking of study.

Equal Benefits and Opportunities

O'Neill Kinesiology College will apply, fair and transparent decision making processes that are based on merit for making decisions about students undertaking, and persons applying for, courses.

When making such decisions, O'Neill Kinesiology College will adopt a flexible approach to providing entry for students taking into account any educational disadvantage which a student may have experienced such as students from disadvantaged backgrounds; those returning to formal study and others who may not have completed formal requirements will be encouraged to apply.

Publication

This VET Fairness Policy will be made available to Students and Potential Students through publication in the student handbook, which is available in hard copy and through the website www.oneillcollege.com.au.
